

Go for an autumn walk to collect some natural objects.
See how many different patterns you can make using your objects.

You could make patterns with large and small objects, long and short objects or wide and narrow objects.