

Resources, articles and tips via clickable links!

1. Family Gaming Database

(title is a clickable link) Do you want to check if a game is appropriate for your child? Do you want to search for age appropriate games for your family? Look no further... the family gaming database is a fantastic resource with great summaries of many popular games .

2. What I wish my parents knew.

(title is a clickable link) This fantastic guide was put together by the Children's Commissioner and looks into screen time, when bad things happen, artificial intelligence, conversation starters and much more.

3. Social media ban for U16's?

This is a really good topical discussion to have with your children. You may want to explore...

- 1) Why they would consider a ban?
- 2) How the ban is being implemented in Australia?
- 3) What are the positives and negatives of a ban?

